

PADMANABH
MAFATLAL
GROUP

Creating value. Sharing value.

NAVIN FLUORINE INTERNATIONAL LIMITED

Responsible Care Policy

Being sensitive to the community in the entire range of business activities; is one of the basic beliefs of Responsible Care®. We, at Navin Fluorine International Ltd are committed to demonstrate continual improvement to establish harmonious and cordial relationship between organization and the community. We also commit to follow the requirement beyond the statutes under Health, Safety & Environment. We firmly believe and commit that Responsible Care expects a quality of leadership by an enterprise that will take the community along and with security from all aspects. As a responsible care organisation, we further commit;

RC Policy Statement:

NFIL is committed to apply RC principles for continual improvement in the areas of Environmental Management and security of our processes, products and activities across the market chain business strategy

- ❖ Implement Responsible Care management system and promote sustainability.
- ❖ Incorporate HSE in our business strategy and processes to ensure statutory compliance.
- ❖ Continually improve HSE & security performance through effective evaluation of risk audits and monitoring of performance indicators.
- ❖ Operate our plants and facilities in a manner that protects the Environment, Safety of our employees and the community. Company is committed for the continual up-gradation of our operations to implement modern process technology to safeguard environment & society.
- ❖ Embed HSE culture through effective training and communication.
- ❖ To promote pollution prevention by minimization of waste emission i.e., solid, liquid & gas, considering optimum utilization of natural resources.
- ❖ Secure facilities and data in line with requirement of the security code of responsible care.
- ❖ Maintain an open dialogue with employees, community and stake holders to address their concerns and assure them of our continual commitment

Date: 21.08.2024

Place: Mumbai

Nitin Kulkarni

Managing Director